The Conservative group was allocated 1 seat on the Regeneration and Housing Overview and Scrutiny Panel and the representative appointed at Council was Councillor Jane Cox.
5. The Conservative Group has subsequently requested that the membership be amended and that Councillor Jane Cox be replaced on the Regeneration and Housing Overview and Scrutiny Panel by Councillor Steve Cox. This change in membership has been requested by the relevant Political Group and the Committee is therefore asked to note this change of membership.

LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

10. Sections 15, 16 and 17 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (as amended) set out the duties of the Local Authority and the allocation of seats to political groups on Committees to ensure political balance.
11. The cumulative effect of these duties is to require "proportionality" across the formal activities of the Authority, representing the overall political composition of the Authority, so that there can for example, be no one party Committees so far as they are constituted as formal Committees or Sub-Committees of the Council.
12. The Local Government (Committees and Political Groups) Regulations 1990, provide the mechanism by which the wishes of Political Groups are to be ascertained.
13. This is to comply with a request made by the Conservative Group to replace Councillor Jane Cox with Councillor Steve Cox. Therefore, no other options are considered appropriate.
14. Exceptions to these requirements of political balance may be made where arrangements are approved by the Council without any Member of the Council or a Committee, voting against them.
