

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Personally	Overall responsibility for all services and issues concerning Public Health, and for professional advice to the Cabinet, Executive and Council as the designated statutory Director of Public Health (including exercising the duties and functions set out in the statutory guidance for Director of Public Health).
	Representing the Authority on partnership and external bodies (as required by the Mayor)
	Child Death Overview Panel
	Health and Well Being Board
	Director of Public Health Annual Report
	Local authority's Public Health response as a responsible Authority under the Licensing Act
	Local authority's role in cooperating with police, probation service and prison service to assess risks posed by violent or sexual offenders*
	DPH co-chair of Local Health Resilience Forum
Assistant Director of Public Health	Well Programmes (this includes the public health aspects of the wider determinants of health to include, for example, housing)
	Working well – to include local initiatives on workplace health.
	Ageing well – to include local initiatives to reduce excess deaths as a result of seasonal mortality, respiratory diseases.
	Living well – to include public mental health services, learning disabilities, physical and sensory impairment.
	Starting well – to include population level interventions to reduce and prevent birth defects, public health services for children and young people aged 5-19.
	Developing well – to include dental public health services, accidental injury prevention.
	Emergency Preparedness, Resilience and Response for emergencies that pose a risk to public health and duties related to the Authority's role in the Local Health Resilience Partnership
	The local authority role in dealing with health protection incidents, outbreaks and emergencies.
	Public Health delivery: Business Plan, covalent and performance management.
	Surveillance and assessment of the population's health and well-being (including managing, analysing and interpreting information, knowledge and statistics).
	Health Impact assessment.
	Data Observatory/Business intelligence (public Health intelligence)
	Health Promotion Certificate and Diploma Programme.
	Locally led nutrition initiatives.
	National Child Measurement Programme.
	Interventions to tackle obesity such as community lifestyle and weight management services.
	Increasing levels of physical activity in the local population.
	Social Marketing, skilled for health, making every contact count, public health campaigns.
	Behavioural and lifestyle campaigns to prevent cancer and long term conditions.

Appendix B

Assistant Director of Public Health	Support to the Health and Wellbeing Board.
	Alcohol and drug misuse services.
	Tobacco control and smoking cessation.
	NHS health check assessments.
	Prevention and early diagnosis
	Comprehensive sexual health services (including testing and treatment for sexually transmitted infections, contraception outside of the GP contract and sexual health promotion and disease prevention).
	Public Health Aspects of promotion of community safety, violence prevention and response.
	Supporting reviewing and challenging delivery of key public health funded and NHS delivered services such as Immunisation and screening programmes.
	Local initiatives that reduce public health impacts of environmental risks.
	Research and development.
	Evaluation.
	Knowledge management.
	Public Health Advice to NHS Commissioners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategic planning: assessing needs. • Procuring services: planning capacity and managing demand. • Procuring services: designing shape and structure of supply. • Strategic planning: reviewing service provision. • Strategic planning: deciding priorities. • Telehealth/telecare (advice to both NHS and local authority to the Telesolution Programme Board). • Individual Funding Requests panel. • Liaison with NHS Commissioning Board, clinical networks and clinical senates.
	Health Protection
	Professional standards and development: Public Health Training, organisational development, Continuous Professional Development.

*Advice being sought from Department of Health related to the discharge of this statutory duty