Report

To the Chair and Members of the

LICENSING SUB-COMMITTEE

Licensing Act 2003 – Application for Review of an Existing Premises Licence.

Polskie Smaki, 57 Beckett Road, Wheatley, Doncaster, DN2 4AD

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. To request that members of the Sub-Committee determine the application for a review of an existing premises licence in respect of Polskie Smaki, 57 Beckett Road, Wheatley, Doncaster, DN2 4AD. The procedure for considering the application is set out at Appendix A.

RECOMMENDATIONS

2. It is recommended that the Sub-Committee determine this application having regard to the representations made and the evidence before it.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR THE CITIZENS OF DONCASTER

3. The Licensing Act 2003 requires the Licensing Authority to exercise its obligations on applications for a review of a premises licence.

BACKGROUND

4. The premises concerned are a grocery store which hold a premises licence authorising the sale of alcohol for consumption off the premises.
5. The application for a review of the premises licence has been brought by Doncaster Trading Standards who are a Responsible Authority under the Licensing Act 2003.
6. The application to review relates to 'the prevention of crime and disorder' licensing objective. The grounds include that illicit tobacco has been sold from the premises during two test purchase operations carried out by Trading Standards.
7. A summary of the application is attached as Appendix B to this report.

8. The application for review states that Mr Hoshmand Aminishokri has been the Premises Licence Holder and Designated Premises Supervisor since May 2015. Records held by the Licensing Authority show that although the premises have held a licence since May 2015, Mr Aminishokri became the Premises Licence Holder and Designated Premises Supervisor on 2 March 2017.
9. The application shows that the test purchases were carried out on 30 May 2017 and 1 December 2017.
10. A location plan of the premises is attached at Appendix C.
11. A copy of the application is attached at Appendix D.
12. Under the Licensing Act 2003, statutory guidance issued under section 182 of the Act and the Licensing Authority's statement of Licensing Policy, any licensing application under the Act, for a review of a premises licence must be determined by the Licensing Sub-Committee having regard to the evidence before it.
13. A representation in support of the review has been received from South Yorkshire Police. A copy of the representation is attached at Appendix E.
14. The existing Premises Licence is reproduced at Appendix F.
15. The applicant has indicated that a copy of the application for review was sent to the Premises Licence Holder and Responsible Authorities.

OPTIONS CONSIDERED

16. The Licensing Act 2003 requires the Licensing Authority to exercise its obligations on applications for a review of a premises licence and therefore no option, other than to hold a hearing, can be considered.
17. Where the Licensing Authority considers that action under its statutory powers is appropriate, it may take any of the following steps:
 - Modify the conditions of the premises licence
 - Exclude a licensable activity from the scope of the licence
 - Remove the designated premises supervisor
 - Suspend the licence for a period not exceeding three months
 - Revoke the licence

EQUALITY IMPLICATIONS

24. Decision makers must consider the Council's duties under the Public Sector Equality Duty at s149 of the Equality Act 2010. There are no specific equality implications arising from this report. However, any activities arising from this report will need to be the subject of separate 'due regard' assessments.

This application to review relates to the following licensing objective(s)

Please tick one or more boxes

- 1) the prevention of crime and disorder
- 2) public safety
- 3) the prevention of public nuisance
- 4) the protection of children from harm

Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 1)

This review is brought on the grounds of prevention of crime and disorder.

Sale of illicit tobacco is a criminal offence, under s92 of the Trade Marks Act 1994 for counterfeit tobacco products, and under Reg.15 of the Standardised Packaging of Tobacco Products Regulations 2015 for smuggled and illicit tobacco products.

Across the UK there is an issue with counterfeit and illicit tobacco sales. This is particularly prevalent in Doncaster town centre.

The trade in illicit tobacco can be defined as the production, import, export, possession or sale of tobacco products which fail to comply with legal requirements.

There are three main sources of illicit tobacco.

1 - Smuggled products - These are legitimately manufactured products that are diverted through the supply chain in their original country of manufacture and smuggled into the UK, often by large organised crime gangs. No tax/duty is paid on these products.

2 - Bootlegged products, sometimes called 'Cheap Whites' - These are again legitimate products purchased in foreign countries with low levels of taxation, generally Eastern European/Russian areas, and smuggled on a small scale by individuals or lower level organised gangs. No duty is paid on these products when they are imported this way.

3 - Counterfeit products - These are illegally manufactured products, made without the consent of the trademark owner. The products are generally made from inferior quality materials and packaged to look like the original products.

Illicit tobacco products are sold for less than legitimate tobacco products, e.g. a packet of Polish Marlboro Gold retails for around £5.50 compared with around £9 for its UK equivalent. The lower cost distorts the market and undermines legitimate and compliant businesses, reducing not only sales of legitimate tobacco at these businesses but also reducing footfall. Legitimate businesses situated near to illicit tobacco sellers frequently complain that their business is suffering as a result.

The trade in illicit tobacco can be a gateway for young people to start smoking as the low cost of product makes the habit more affordable, those trading in illicit tobacco are also more likely to sell to those under 18 as they disregard the restrictions placed on legitimate traders.

The illicit trade also undermines the work done by Stop Smoking Services and health agencies to help people stop smoking.

No tax is paid on these products which means central government loses revenue. It could also be argued that use of these products places an extra strain on Health Services and associated agencies which incurs further costs to both central and local government.

The illicit trade funds organised crime and is increasingly linked to modern slavery.

Illicit products can also contravene safety legislation as the majority of product does not comply with the 'reduced ignition propensity' requirements of the safety standard introduced in 2010.

In practice this means that an illicit cigarette will continue to burn if left unattended. Compliant products will extinguish themselves and therefore pose less fire risk. Smoking causes approximately 3,000 house fires each year, a number of fires can be linked directly to illicit tobacco causing house fires.

One of the many methods Trading Standards use to combat this illicit trade is test purchasing. An operative acts as a normal consumer and visits the shop and asks for some cheap cigarettes.

Polskie Smaki has sold illicit tobacco during two of these test purchase operations.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application
(please read guidance note 2)

On 30th May 2017 a pack of Marlboro was sold for £5.00 by two women behind the counter. The cigarettes had Polish text on them and were not in plain packaging and therefore did not comply with Reg. 3 of the Standardised Packaging of Tobacco Products Regulations 2015. The sale of such items is a criminal offence under the same regulations.

On the 24th July 2017 Mr Aminishokri signed for a letter hand delivered by an officer from the Trading Standards Service. The officer discussed the failure and advised what may happen should future illicit product be purchased from the premises. The letter formally advised of the test purchase failure and also had accompanying guidance on what Tobacco Products could be sold.

Despite the guidance given, on 1st December 2017, Hoshmand Aminishokri sold a pack of 'Richmond' Cigarettes for £3.50 These cigarettes were not in plain packaging and therefore did not comply with Reg. 3 of the Standardised Packaging of Tobacco Products Regulations 2015. The sale of such items is a criminal offence under Reg. 15 of the same regulations.

Richmond is a brand that has significant history of being produced illegally without the consent of the trademark owner, given the price of this product it is reasonable to assume that these are a counterfeit product.

The premises has a gantry stocked with genuine tobacco products. The fact that the products sold were not off the main tobacco gantry is another indicator that the staff knew that the stock was illicit and could not legally be sold.

The price is also indicative that there has been no UK duty paid on these products - the minimum excise duty on one pack of 20 cigarettes should be £5.37 as of 20 May 2017 (www.gov.uk/government/publications/rates-and-allowances-excise-duty-tobacco-duty/excise-duty-tobacco-duty-rates).

Guidance issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003 highlights how illegal/smuggled tobacco is viewed by the licensing regime in paragraph 11.27 :-

"There is certain criminal activity that may arise in connection with licensed premises which should be treated particularly seriously. These are the use of licensed premises:

- for the sale and storage of smuggled tobacco and alcohol."

Paragraph 11.28 gives some direction to the licensing authorities and supports using the review procedure when such activities are undertaken.

Hoshmand Aminishokri has been the Licence Holder for the premises and the Designated Premises Supervisor since May 2015.

It appears that he has no regard for his legal responsibilities as both a business owner and a premises licence holder.

Mr Aminishokri trades to make illegal profit at a cost to the government and the local economy. Such actions are detrimental to legitimate traders who lose trade as a result of his ongoing criminality.

RE- Sale of Illicit Tobacco

Polskie Smaki
57 Beckett Road ,
Wheatley
Doncaster
DN2 4AD

On the 30th May, two packets of tobacco was purchased from two Women working at the premise, the tobacco had incorrect packaging and did not comply with Reg. 3 of the Standardised Packaging of Tobacco products regulations 2015. Following on from this, the premise was served with a warning letter advising that the premise would be reviewed if any further illegal products were found. Despite the advice, the premise again sold incorrectly packaged tobacco on 1st December.

South Yorkshire Police support Doncaster Trading Standards review of the premise. The sale of illicit tobacco can be linked to organised crime, and these premises are providing an outlet for such activity to be carried out.

This has the potential to lead to a rise in Crime & Disorder within the Doncaster area.

Yours faithfully,

For and on behalf of

If you believe any of these details to be incorrect you must contact us without delay.

- 7) The granting of this licence does not relieve the applicant of the need to ensure that the appropriate planning permission is in place. Furthermore, there are circumstances when, as a condition of planning permission, a terminal hour has been set for the use of the premises for commercial purposes. Where these hours are different to the licensing hours, the licence holder must observe the earlier closing time. Premises that operate in breach of their planning permission are liable to prosecution under planning law.
- 8) Where applicable, we have taken this opportunity to update the conditions on the licence and remove any conditions which we believe to be obsolete or a duplication of mandatory conditions or which duplicate other statutory requirements or duties or responsibilities placed on the employer by other legislation. If you believe that any of the removed conditions should remain on the licence then please contact us to discuss this further.

Please note that the above list is not exhaustive and if you wish to discuss any other matter please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours Sincerely

P Williams

CONTROL OF COUNTERFEIT AND ILLICIT PRODUCTS

A targeted multi-agency campaign is being undertaken to reduce the prevalence of illicit alcohol and tobacco available in some retail premises throughout South Yorkshire. All retailers must ensure that all alcohol and tobacco products are purchased from legitimate sources. In particular, retailers must ensure that all purchases are accompanied by invoices which state the supplier's full company details for traceability purposes including being able to demonstrate that the correct excise duty has been paid. It is an offence to keep smuggled goods on licensed premises and your licence is at risk if inspectors find such products on your premises.
