To who this may concern

I honestly believe this to be an senseless exercise in what will only ever be an illusion of forthright opinion in regard to the alcohol licensing application at 'The Old Brew House Cusworth' and as such my response will be short.

Please don't take my abbreviated email as anything but disbelief in the system to actually have a say in the outcome of this application which is more than likely already set in stone.

To have a 'pub' on the premises of Cusworth hall (which already caters for alcohol consumption in the bistro) will only prove to bring up evil to the area and the village as a whole with drunken vandalism and chaotic activities inducing unrest up to 12pm on weekends. For what? A little extra income. Shame money is put over the rights of our village to have or even expect peace and quite in our little corner of doncaster.

I believe a much better use of space would be a farm shop selling produce of the surrounding area within sensible hours. But as I said I'll leave my complain there as I have already waisted enough of my time in complaint of something I have never really had a say over.

Shame and quite sad.
