

The Planning Framework ‘Golden Thread’

The term “Golden Thread” is often used to describe the link between the different plans within the organisation, connecting borough wide strategic objectives with the actions of individual employees at all levels.

